

Be a learner at school

What does it look like when we are being learners at school?

A large, empty rounded rectangular box with a black border, intended for drawing or writing. The box is centered on the page and occupies most of the lower half of the image.